15. [To Defense Counsel] What is the defendant's position?
16. [To Defendant—EXAMPLE] I am releasing you on your own recognizance. You must appear before this court when ordered and a failure to do so will expose you to prosecution for the separate and distinct federal charge of failing to appear for court. Do you understand?

18. You have been charged with _____.
19. Do you understand the nature of the charge(s) against you?

22. Do you understand that you have a right to plead not guilty and to persist in that plea?
23. Do you understand that you have a right to a jury trial at which you would be presumed innocent and the burden would be on the Government to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt?
24. Do you understand that, at the trial, you would have the right to be represented by counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses who testify against you, the right to testify on your own behalf if you so choose, the right to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the right not to be compelled to incriminate yourself?
25. Do you understand that, if your plea of guilty is accepted by the Court, there will be no further trial of any kind?
26. Do you understand, therefore, that by pleading guilty, you are waiving the right to a trial and consenting to the conviction on the charge(s), and that nothing will remain for me to do other than to determine your punishment?

limitations and inform the defendant that he/she will have the opportunity to withdraw the plea if you reject the agreement]

- e. [If agreement contains a waiver of right to appeal]
- i. [To Defendant] Ordinarily you would have the right to appeal the sentence or the sentencing procedures or any error that I might make in these proceedings. But you are agreeing here not to take any such appeal [if the sentence I impose is ____ months or less]. In other words, I would be the last judge in your case and you are agreeing that you will not be able to overturn what I do. Do you understand?
32. In determining your sentence, I must calculate the applicable sentencing guideline range, apply any departures which may apply. I must consider the possible range and departures under the guidelines and other sentencing factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3553 to arrive at a reasonable sentence. Do you understand?
33. [To Defense Counsel] Have you discussed the consequences of pleading guilty with the defendant, and are you satisfied that he/she understands those consequences?
34. Do you know of any reason that I should not accept the defendant's plea?
35. [To U.S. Attorney] Please inform me what evidence the government would produce if this matter should go to trial?
36. [To Defense Counsel] Are you satisfied that the government can in fact produce the evidence just described?
37. [To Defendant] Is there any respect in which you disagree with what the government represented it would produce if this matter should proceed to trial?
38. Is the information true to your own personal knowledge?

39. Based on my questioning and observation of you, I am satisfied that you understand the nature of the charge(s) and the maximum possible penalties provided by law. Further, I find that your guilty plea has been made knowingly and intelligently; that it has been made voluntarily and not as a result of force of threats or promises [apart from the plea agreement]; and that there is a factual basis for the plea. I therefore accept your plea of guilty and adjudge you guilty of the offense.
